(FOR THE ROUNDABOUT.)

October.

The crimson leaves are falling, lightly falling,
The bare Summer draws night;
My red bird, too, is calling, faintly calling,
From out some hidden cover—"sweet goodbye."

The valleys touched with tints of brown and golden.

The landscape lovely in its autumn dress,
All hearts responding to sweet memories older,
That come with tender pathos in a month like this.

Bright visions of the woodland with its "shellbank" treasures.

The woodland of Kentucky, none other half so lovely.

to those of us who look back to past pleasures—
And live them over when October's here——In fleecy whiteness, cotton fields are trying

To shame the snow "cloud cap" routine by,
So grandly then the autumn days are dying
Beneath the glory of a Southern sky.

Of Leroy, N. Y., was dying of Neuralgia of the Heart. The attending physician had made his last visit and said there was no prospect of his living but a few hours. Her son had been telegraphed from Rochester to come and see her die. At this critical moment an agent selling Dr. Hale's Household Ointment called at the house and told them she would follow his directions. He was so earnest and positive that the family concluded to try the new remedy and began applying it at once to the region about the heart; the pain soon ceased.

Carrie Carswell is alive and well today, and she and all her family say Dr. Hale's Household Ointment saved her. This wonderful medicine can be had at Phil. Carpenter's drug store, South Side.

CLOSE OBSERVER.

A LEVEL HEAD.

The Advantage of Presence of Mind in an Emergency.

During the late strike on the New York Central Railroad the militia were ordered to be in readiness in case of a riot, but they were not called out.

In an interview, Gov. Hill said the troops were not to be called upon except in case of an emergency. The emergency had not arisen, therefore they would not be ordered out. He remarked that this was the first great strike since he became governor, and he did not propose to lose his head; the only point at which there had then been serious trouble was at Syracuse, and there a deputy-sheriff had lost his head and precipitated an encounter which continued several weeks, and there was riotous action at various points along the road, but the civil authorities were able to cope with it without calling on the militia.

The test of man's real ability comes when an emergency arises which makes a hasty call on his good judgment and discretion. The man who retains his presence of mind, maintains his equipoise and exercises sound discretion at such critical junctures is to be relied on and will be paid for his frankness.

Men with level heads have the staying qualities which do not falter in the face of danger. Otis A. Cole, of Kinsman, O., June 10, 1890, writes: "In the fall of 1888 I was feeling very ill. I consulted a doctor and he said I had a slight dislocation of the neck, and that he would not stand in my shoes for the State of Ohio." But he does not lose courage or give up; he says: "I saw the testimonial of Mr. John Coleman, 100 Gaynor street, Ed. Hill, Columbus, and wrote to him. In due time I received an answer, stating that the testimonial he gave was genuine and not overdrawn in any particular. I took a good many bottles of Warner's Safe Cure; have not taken any for one year."

Gov. Hill is accounted a very successful man; he is cool and calculating and belongs to the class that do not lose their heads when emergencies arise.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon, Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE."

Tioga.

Victor Bohannon is teaching in district No. 7.

Commissioner Barnet, of Shelbyville, was visiting the schools in Jacksonsville and Graves district last week.

George and Lewis Harp were in town Thursday on business.

C. B. Harp, Constable Harlow, E. J. Harlow and sons, Wes and Edmund, were in Frankfort Wednesday.

Wesley Harlow in aiming to pass a horse a few days ago, was kicked by the horse three times, but fortunately escaped without receiving any very serious injuries.

While John Harlow, living on Grub Ridge, was engaged in leading a saw-log on a wagon, the skid broke, causing the log to fall on his leg, breaking it in two places. At this date he was suffering intensely.

A very charming and quiet little wedding occurred in our adjoining neighborhood on Saturday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Herbert Smith and Miss Jennie Warfield. Miss Jennie had made her home with Mr. Cornelius Demaree for a number of years, and having no objection with the ree's approval, he (Demaree) determined that they should not marry in his house, consequently Smith drove to Demaree's residence Tuesday evening, informing Miss Jennie of his intention to wed her in the buggy with him and drove over to Mr. Cook's, below Jacksonville, and early Wednesday morning Smith and Miss Jennie drove to Shelbyville where Clerk Doss issued the necessary documents. The Rev. Mr. Lee Cook, whose Rev. W. Frank Owen was in waiting for them, and at 5 p. m. the ceremony was performed by Rev. Clark in a very beautiful and impressive manner. The bride is a beautiful young woman lady, and while in her presence the log glide by too swiftly. The groom is a very industrious and promising young man, and we would judge from his physical make-up as being capable of making them a handsome living. We close by wishing for them continual happiness. CATCHUM.

A Pair of Jacks.

The following notice of the farce comedy, "A Pair of Jacks," is from the St. Louis Republic. The play will be at the Opera House next Tuesday evening, October 21:

If one wants to see a funnier musical farce comedy than H. Grattan Dunn's "A Pair of Jacks," which opened at the People's Playhouse, he need not have to travel far to find it. At least that is the verdict of the throngs of people who attended the afternoon and evening performances. Hundreds were turned away, unable to get seats on standing room. "A Pair of Jacks" is a plot or a framework arising out of the mistaken identity of Judge and Dr. Jack; but after all, this framework does not make much difference.

brings about amusing situations and complications, and admits of introduction of bright specialties the company can have. The scenes are varied, the member composing them, and is more stronger than the one which made the play a success on its initial production here, at the close of the last season. R. C. Knowles, the Judge Jack, is still the comical figure, but better than ever. Several of his specialties are new. The Dr. Jack is in the hands of Al W. Faison, and he handles it in a manner which is highly acceptable. He has had several imitators, which have proved encroachers. Harry C. Stanley, as Prof. Queer, the alderman, does well in his general work, and has a fine piece of business in his musical specialties. Miss Jennie Satterlee is as amusing as ever. Mr. J. M. Johnson's singing is, if anything, a great improvement on young Witmark of last year. His "Bridge Song" made a great hit. Misses Winifred Johnson, Nina Heyward, Lee Carroll and others are all up to the mark.

An Attack of Apoplexy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. E. H. Rutherford were summoned to Danville by telegram Monday to attend the bedside of Mrs. Young, widow of Dr. John C. Young, of Centre College, and a daughter of John J. Crittenden.—Perry Record.

Fine Fuzzy Furs.

At Weitzel & O'Donnell's. Tastefully arranged so the public can see the goods to the best advantage. The fur display is something unparalleled in the annals of Frankfort. The skins of rare beasts, from every fur yielding country, are exhibited in every shape designed for practical utility. There are fur wraps in every conceivable fashionable skin and pattern, from the long seal skin ulster, worth $450, the magnificent sable cloak, worth $250, the long fur-lined circulars, to the merest bit of fur that could be converted into a collarette. The capes, the fashionable necessities of the season, are coveted by every feminine soul with aspirations toward the beautiful. A poem in white fur is the satin lined thibbet cape with inserted vest of soft gray muffle. A majority of the importations show two kinds of fur. There are the combination seal jackets with fronts and flaming collars of black Persian lamb; there is the charming gray krimmorn cape with pin head Persian medici collar and vest; black thibbit caps with beaver fronts, Astrakan caps with wool, seal puffs and large roll collar, and all other imaginable combinations. There are boas, muffs and collarettes; there are purses showing a very realistic head of the animal whose hide is therein sacrificed, and there is every other novelty in fur on record. The skins of the magnificent Bengal tigers, grizzly and black bears, black Russian wolf, our own grey mountain wolf, wolverines, mountain cat, lynx, leopards, red fox, cross fox and the Mongolian tiger, both mounted and unmounted, are swung around the entire establishment, the glaring eyes and the yawning mouths giving little folks a very "creepy" feeling indeed. One splendid Bengal tiger skin sells for $175 unmounted and $200 mounted. All these furry wonders are courteous and intelligently exhibited to guests or customers by two gentlemen thoroughly au fait in the technicalities of fur, Messrs. Tischler and Webber of the Cincinnati firm of Rendigs, Davaillon & Co. Special attention is called to the Davaillon patent elastic fly. No seal skin garment is complete without one. It has only to be seen to be appreciated.

Is Life Worth Living.

This is a question that would be answered very differently by different individuals. To some living is a pure enjoyment, to others life is a burden, to a man or woman who never feels ill, who has no care, a morning unrefreshed with a tired, languid feeling, life is indeed burdensome. This is the result of a torpid liver, inactive condition of the kidneys, a foul stomach, &c. These conditions can all be quickly changed and life made happy by the use of the new remedy—Dr. Hale's Household Tea, the great blood purifier and nerve tonic, it cures all biliousness, constipation, inaction of the liver and kidneys and makes a person feel new. 50 cent packages at the local druggist's drug store, South Side.

Good Advice.

Several years ago I was covered with boils to such an extent that my life was a misery. After trying a number of other remedies without any benefit, I was advised by a wholesale druggist at Columbus to try S. S. Swift's Skin Remedy. One bottle of it will make me comfortable again. I have not had a boil since. To those afflicted with boils or Skin Erasions I give the same advice my wholesale druggist gave me—take S. S. S.

To Build Air Ships.

There has been a great deal said in the papers lately about the location of a large plant, at Mt. Carmel, Ill., for the purpose of building air ships which it is claimed will fly through the air at the rate of 200 miles an hour, and that a company with $20,000,000 capital had been organized to back the enterprise; but it is not generally known that a former Frankfort boy is one of the projectors of the gigantic scheme. Mr. Richard Butler, of the Mt. Carmel Machine and Pulley Works, who is one of the inventors of the air ship and a corporator of the company, is a son of the late Ed. Ward Butler, the plasterer, who lived here for many years, and was killed by the falling of a wall of the Jimmy Shannon residence. Mr. Butler was born and raised in this city, and left here about ten years ago.

They All Failed.

The following letter from Mr. W. A. Thompson, of Columbus, Wis., says entirely concerning my life: "I have always been treated fairly, but have stomach and nervous prostration by three doctors in New York, two in Chicago, one in Philadelphia, one in Cincinnati, and at the large institute I remained for 16 months. They all failed. But one, Dr. J. D. Miles, Recorative Nervine helped him wonderfully." This should be used in all bad headaches, backaches, changes of nervous disturbances, fits, rheumatism, etc. As at J. W. Gayle's store, also for travel bottle and Dr. Miles' new book on the Nerves and Heart.

The legislature shall divide the state into three supreme court districts, and the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint one judge for each district, provided that during his term of office shall not render him ineligible as his own successor for the next district from which he has removed. It is provided further, that the present incumbents shall be considered holding their terms of office from the date at large, and not for the district which they are now respectively

A Note of Warning.

Editor Roundabout:
It is highly important that men of intellect and first-class business capacity should be selected by the people to represent them in the affairs of the city of Frankfort for the next two years. It is therefore the duty of the property holders and good citizens to take an active interest in the coming city election, and aid in the selection of men of character and thorough knowledge and qualifications for the very important trust.

The gentleman selected by the people will have no easy duties to perform. The bonded debt of the city now amounts to $251,000, the annual interest on which amounts to nearly $15,000. This must be provided for by the new city officials so that all moneys obtained from licensees are plied to the credit of the Sinking Fund, and are from time to time paid over to the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners to pay the interest and retire the principal of the bonded debt in the same full sum. It is also true that the Council has authority under the charter to fix the license rates. If the rates as now fixed be reduced materially, as has been suggested by some, a direct tax will have to be levied on the inhabitants of the city for Sinking Fund purposes. This increase, with the present rate for school purposes, and an increased rate for revenue purposes, made necessary by reason of a loss of income from other sources, will make taxation so high and exceedingly burdensome for the people.

At the expiration of the present fiscal year there will be a floating debt of nearly $20,000 to be provided for, $10,000 of which can be discharged by the present city tax, and the balance of bonds authorized by an act of the last General Assembly; but the incoming Council will have to make provision for the balance of the debt, and provide means to pay the current expenses of the city for the months of January, February, March, April, and May. There will be no funds available for that purpose until the first or middle of May. This is a very serious matter and has been a source of annoyance to every Council for the last ten fifteen years. If there is no remedy for this, I submit to the present Council to consider the passage of the necessary charter amendment so that such a state of affairs may not again exist.

The income of the city for the year 1880 was $5,625 less than it was in 1879, and $1,000 less than it was in 1889, making the taxable property and the rate of taxation remain as they were in 1889 and 1890, and yet the income of the city for those years from all sources was not sufficient to pay the current expenses. This mat- ter has been a constant source of the careful and serious consideration of the incoming Council. One of two things must be done: The rate of taxation will have to be increased or there must be a reduction of expenses all along the line. The people do not care to pay a higher tax rate, and many of them believe that the expenses of the city can be decreased in such a manner as to avoid any increase of the present tax rate, and not seriously injure the services of any of the departments of the city.

The foregoing are a few of the many and important matters which will have to be considered by the incoming Council. It is not necessary at this time to detail more. The matters mentioned should excite the interest of those who pay the taxes and bear the burden of government, and induce them to call upon the Council to insure the services of such men to represent them in the Council as will guard their interest and give the people a capable and economical administration of city affairs.

REFORM.

Skunk Out of Gear.
By malarial disease, the human machinery cannot half perform its office. Digestion, secretion, evacuation are disordered, the blood becomes acrid, the nerves feel the tension of pain, the brain becomes fatigued and appears capricious. Terrible is this disease, its consequences. There is, however, a known antidote to the malarious poison, and a certain safeguard against it. In malarious regions of our South and West, in South America, as well as in transmarine countries where the scourge exists, this inimitable prescription has been used with great success. Bitter, has, during the last thirty-five years, been constantly widening the area of its use. Skin Troubles. Skin Complaints, especially rheumatism, lame back, sprains, bruises, toothache, ear ache and like ailments. WE HAVE RISEN FROM THE ASHES!

The legends give us a shining example of recuperation from disaster. The symbolic bird representing the spirit of undaunted and undefeated aspirations, spreading its wings amidst the very flames of destruction, illustrates what can be done, and typifies human ascendancy over temporary disaster. On the morning of the 15th of March last we were the victims of fire's remorseless fury. Unflinchingly, before such a calamity, we responded to the peoples' call. It was not for us to repine; thousands of unspoken encouragements cheered us to combat with this dire misfortune. It was the peoples' wish and will that we should rise "Phoenix-like" from the ashes of a transitory blight. We've done it. Proudly do we say, we've done it.

TO-DAY, SATURDAY, OCT. 18, AT 10 A. M.

We throw open the doors of our Beautiful New Store. We exhibit our new house; we display our new stock. This beautifully appointed establishment will be the peoples' mart for Clothing; the peoples' emporium for Shoes; the peoples' center for Hats; the peoples' board for Furniture. The peoples' criterion for Fine Merchant Tailoring. We glory in this. You glory in it. We cementing tie between us as friends and citizens. Instead of being old, worn-out commercial character by the visitation of a mishap, the "ill wind" of a few months ago has brought us all "good." And now, upon the threshold of an opening new, never spent in selling the old stock, and restoring the monument of our industry to the plane of your admiration, we throw open our doors with the same "Welcome" as of yore, and place ourselves in our former attitude—the peoples' faithful, obedient servants.

HOUSE IN FRANKFORT.

STRICTLY ONE PRICE TO ALL.

The advantages of the One Price Houses are many, as may be gleaned from the following: We have exceptional facilities for laying in large quantities, having two of the largest stores in the State of Kentucky to stock, hence special concessions from manufacturers are received. On placing our goods for sale we add to the cost the closest possible margin of profit, such as will meet current expenses, and sell our garments, hats and shoes at one given price to all. In this manner all customers are treated alike; no cause for complaint ever arises, as is the case with other houses, that will sell a given article for one price to one customer, and higher or lower, the same identical article, to another.

We did not overlook the convenience of the ladies who will find the entire second floor devoted to BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S WEARING APPAREL; on the same floor we had built a conveniently sitting room for ladies, comfortably furnished, and in connection therewith a ladies' toilet room has been provided.
